ciate Justice of the Supreme Court—Vilas and Dickinson Confirmed, WASHINGTON, Jan. 17 .- Yesterday was a day of unusual interest in the Senate, as was generally known that the nomina of the Su eme Court would come up for jority of the Judiciary Committee having re-ported adversely upon his nomination, and equally divided politically much interest naturally centered on the question of the final result. It was concreted that Rd-dieberger would vote perats and also Stewart, of Nevada. Further all was guess work. The result showed that Stanford, of California, also voted for confirmation, giving Lamar clear majority of four. The Senate went into executive session at one o'clock in the afternoon, and three-quarters of an hour later took up the nomination of Mr. Lamar. Its consideration lasted ontil four o'clock, at which time the nomin-ation was confirmed by a vote of 32 to 28. Riddleberger, Stanford and Stewart voted with the Democrats. All the other Republicans voted or were paired against Mr. Lamar, and all the Democra's were in h s favor. The discussion was almost entirely confined to the Republican side. The prin cital speakers were Edmun's, Everts, Cullom, Sherman, Allison, Hoar, Haw-

THE WOOL INTEREST. The Committee Appointed to Report a Bill for the Revision of the Tariff on Wool

Agree to a Measure. Washington, Jan. 16.—The committee of line appointed at the conference of the wool men to frame a bill providing for a revision of the wool tariff schedules, bas reached an agreement on most of the essential features of the proposed measure and made a report to the full conference, After a long discussion this report was re-turned to the committee in order that it might be so amended as to render it more acceptable to all the interests represented in the conference. As originally submitted, neither the wool dealers nor the carpet manufacturers were entirely satisfied with it, but after it had been explained and cerconcessions and compromises been made, both expressed themselves as willing to agree to it.

The carpet manufacturers, in explaining their position, stated that, although their industry had recently made rapid progress in this country, they are compelled to import some of the finest grades of wool which they use, and they can not successfully compete with foreign manufacturers of carpets if the tariff on wool is so revised as to suit the wishes of the producers. On the other hand it is maintained that under the present classification many fine wools imported as carpet wools are really used in the manufacture of hosiery, etc., and there should be a reclassification to prevent this
